The Men at the AMOCO Mikes

FOR the 15th consecutive season—an all-time record run, the American Oil Company, maker of AMOCO products, will again bring the Redskins games into your living-room with on-the-scene, play-by-play coverage over a vast AM and FM radio network and on TV wherever possible.

No other major sportscast has enjoyed such uninterrupted longevity.

At the AMOCO TV play-by-play mike again is Jim Gibbons, whose crisp, friendly, qualified voice has been a part of this record-breaking show for 14 of its 15 seasons.

Gibbons, a native of Greeley, Neb., came to Washington in 1940 and has become one of the most popular radio-TV personalities in the history of the Nation's Capital. He is in such demand by sponsors and listeners that he averages five hours daily on radio (WOL) and TV (WRC). He does many of the big national college games on various networks.

At the AMOCO Radio play-by-play mike for the second year will be Eddie Gallaher, personable 'round-the-clock performer of WTOP radio and TV. Like Gibbons, Gallaher averages five hours daily on the air and has been featured on various network shows.

Born in Washington, Eddie was raised in Tulsa, moved to Minneapolis (where he did the University of Minnesota's football games), and then returned to the Nation's Capital after World War II.

• During World War II, two Redskins games collected almost $125,000 for service relief funds.

• In Winston-Salem, the growing Piedmont Bowl has raised almost $50,000.

• But, by far, the most successful promotion has been The Los Angeles Times' annual Rams-Redskins game in mammoth Memorial Coliseum. In 11 games so far, Times Charities, Inc., has NETTED (after all taxes and expenses) $912,750.51.

The Skokie (Ill.) Indians, 1956 American Legion Drum and Bugle Champions. The 1957 championship unit will perform at half-time Nov. 10.

Big Time Half-Time

THE noted author and radio-TV personality, Bob Considine, once wrote:

"A Redskins game is something resembling a fast-moving revue with cues, settings, music, pace, tableaux, and, hold your hats, boys—a ballet . . . Miraculously, the furbelows are never corny, never inappropriate and charm rather than infuriate those hard-boiled fans who want their football raw . . ."

Proud, indeed, are the Redskins of their unmatched half-time shows which have featured some of the brightest names and sprightliest acts in show business.

And, now, more proudly than ever, the Redskins announce the beginning of an annual tribute to the veterans of all our armed forces. Through cooperation of the American Legion, the National Championship Drum and Bugle Corps will appear in a special half-time musical drill Sunday, Nov. 10, the day before Veterans Day.

It is planned to have the Legion champions appear at half-time each year at the game nearest to Veterans Day (Nov. 11).

Adding to the prestige of the occasion will be the presence of the Legion's newly elected National Commander who will greet veterans and other fans over the facilities of the vast AMOCO-Redskins radio and television network.

Page 30

Redskins fans, of course, are well acquainted with the entertainment and musical ability of drum and bugle corps. Past championship units have thrilled Griffith Stadium throngs in other years.

Some of the other big half-time shows for 1957:

- CAROLINA DAY, featuring the famed cadet marching band of Clemson College on Sunday, October 13.
- CHRISTMAS SHOW, always a hit with adults and children alike, featuring the official visit of Santa Claus, December 15.
- SOUVENIR DAY, with members of the Redskins Marching Band pitching autographed footballs into the stands.

An integral part of the entertainment at all the games, of course, is this famed Redskins Band.

It is the oldest—and the best—unit of its kind. It all started back in 1937 when a milk company employes' band asked permission to perform at the Redskins' second game. For the rest of the season, these musical milkmen played to their hearts' content—and the fans' delight. Before the following season, Screen Star Corinne Griffith had written lyrics to "HAIL TO THE REDSKINS!", the Redskins had rented Indian costumes . . . and the band played on!

It has marched up Broadway at the head of invading fans. It has played alongside Waring, Whiteman and the Philharmonic in Philadelphia's mammoth Musical Festival. It has entertained at games in Pittsburgh, Baltimore, Cleveland, New York, Boston, Columbia, Norfolk, Philadelphia.

Draw Play: Quarterback fakes to pass, fullback comes up in blocking crouch, takes ball in stomach. He takes off through gap left by over-eager, onrushing defenders.

Fake: Quarterback pretends to give ball to player who pretends he has it.

Field Goal: Place kick (other than kickoff) between upright and over cross bar of goal. Three points.
