Men at the Amoco Mikes

THE AMOCO-Redskins record-breaking run rolls on and on. For the 17th consecutive season, The American Oil Co., maker of AMOCO products, is bringing Redskins' games into your home over vast television and radio (both AM and FM) networks.

The AMOCO mike teams again are:

TELEVISION—Jim Gibbons (play-by-play) and Eddie Gallaher (sidelights);

RADIO—Dan Daniels (play-by-play) and Arch McDonald (sidelights).

Gibbons is setting a record himself. He's been part of the show for 16 of its 17 years. Both he and Gallaher average 30 hours each week on radio and television. Each has been featured on coast-to-coast broadcasts. Gallaher was voted The Nation's Capital Television Personality of 1959.

Daniels is a veteran of Southeastern Conference games. McDonald, one of the deans of sportscasting, is a three-time winner of The Sporting News' National Broadcasting Award.

MATINEE AT MID-FIELD

"DAYS FOR DIXIE" once again this year are important features of half-time showtime at Griffith Stadium.

Each year two States are singled out for special homage by The Redskins and their sponsors — AMOCO and Marlboro, through whose cooperation outstanding high school and college bands are brought to the Nation's Capital to pay tribute to their home states.

Georgia Day is October 18. The famed 130-piece band of the University of Georgia, known as The Dixie Red Coats, will perform at half-time as the Peach State is honored.

North Carolina Day is observed Dec. 6. The 100-piece Reynolds High School Band from Winston-Salem, N. C. (home of the Piedmont Bowl) will represent the Tarheel State.

The Redskins Band swings around historic Treasury Corner on Pennsylvania Avenue in the last Inaugural Parade. That's Music Director Eddie Pierce above.

The Caballeros, performing above in Griffith Stadium in 1955, will make a return engagement this season on Nov. 15.

In addition to these colorful organizations, the Redskins also will present:

- The National Symphony Orchestra in its sixth annual mid-field concert.
- The Hawthorne (N.J.) Caballeros, championship drum and bugle corps, in return engagement.
- And Santa Claus.

For dates and details see page 6.

The 100-piece Redskins Band, led by Eddie Pierce, again will provide entertainment at all home games. The Redskins band is unbeaten after 21 years. It all started in 1937 when a milk company employes' band asked permission to perform at the Redskins' second game. For the rest of the season, these musical milkmen played to their hearts content—and to the fans' delight. By the next season, Screen Star Corinne Griffith had written lyrics to "HAIL TO THE REDSKINS!", first of all pro football songs, and the band played on.

It has performed in Pittsburgh, New York, Cleveland, Boston, Norfolk, Baltimore, Philadelphia, Columbia, S. C. It has played alongside Waring, Whiteman and the Philharmonic in Philadelphia's Musical Festival. It has paraded in Inauguration celebrations, represented the Nation's Capital at the national Lions Clubs' convention and marched up Broadway at the head of thousands of invading fans.

Dr. Howard Mitchell directs the National Symphony Orchestra in last year's mid-field concert. They'll be back this year on Oct. 11.

Nov. 15

Veterans Day

The Hawthorne (N.J.) Caballeros, champion American Legion drum and bugle corps, pays homage to all veterans.

Dec. 6

North Carolina Day

Another "Day for Dixie" as Reynolds High School Band of Winston-Salem helps honor the Tar Heel State.

Dec. 13

The Christmas Show

Featuring the star performer of all time: Santa Claus, himself, in person. The Redskins Band tosses souvenir footballs.

"GEORGIA DAY"

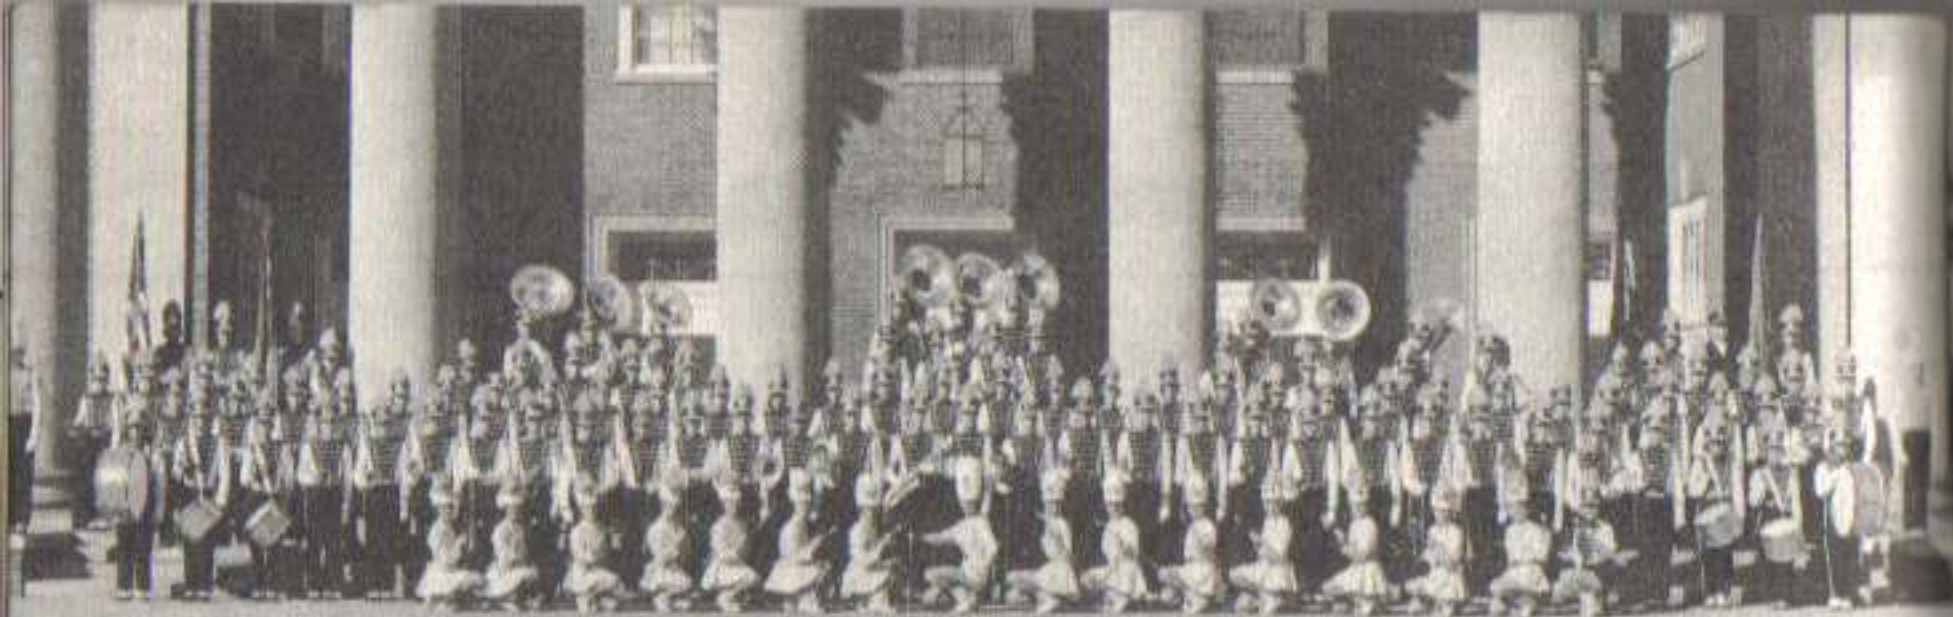

GEORGIA'S Dixie Redcoat Band, here Oct. 18, is setting the pace for collegiate units with its "Music in Motion" style. It maneuvers deftly, but Band Director Roger Dancz puts the emphasis on music and lets the twirling units provide the main motion and color.

(right) Barbara Emminger, world's champion baton twirler, star soloist of the Dixie Redcoats. She has won 148 trophies, 140 medals and four championships.

(below) The Dixie Redcoats feature 22 Swiss-flag twirling Georgettes and eight Dancing Majorettes. All are under direction of Phyllis Dancz, wife of the band director.

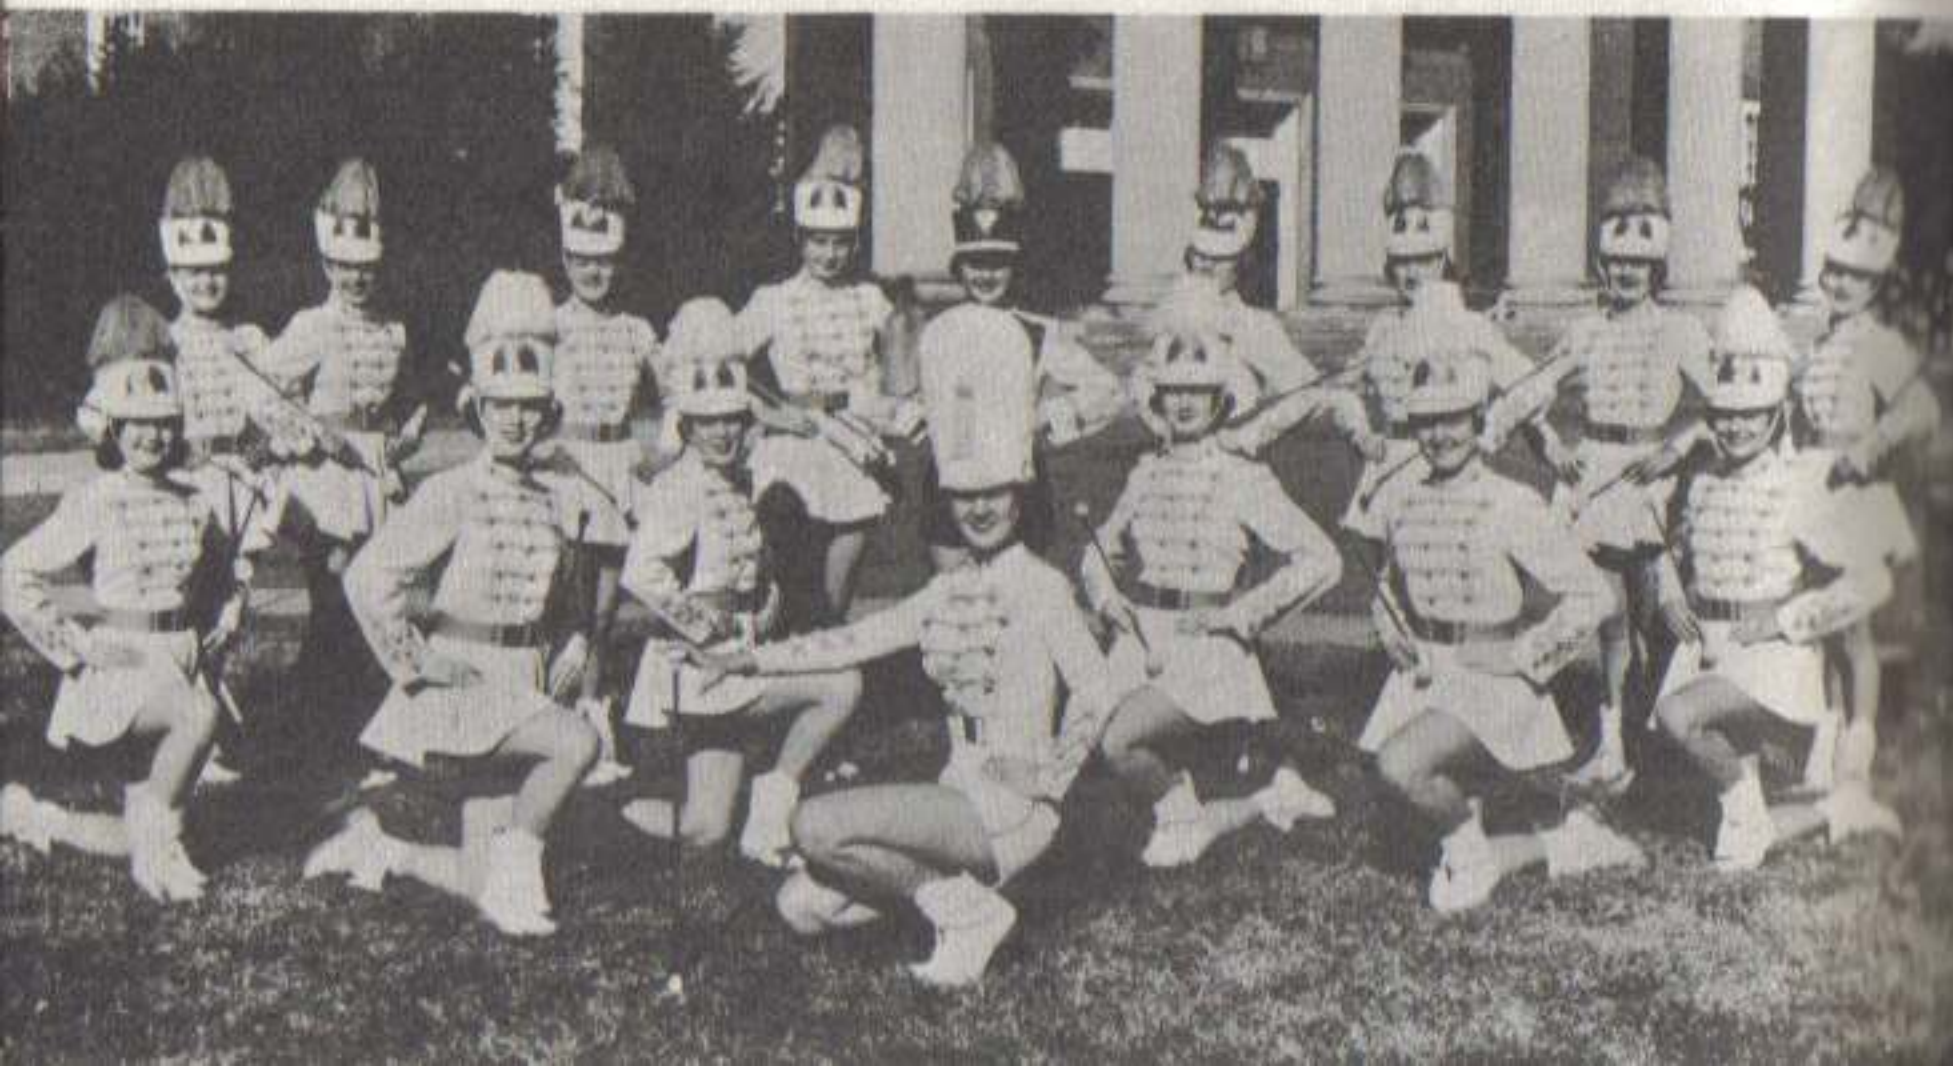

The Black and Gold Band, senior unit of the two marching bands at Winston-Salem's Reynolds High School, which performs here on North Carolina Day, Dec. 6.

"NORTH CAROLINA DAY"

FOR THE PAST three years, Reynolds High School Band has been the "official" Redskins Band at the Piedmont Bowl in Winston-Salem. These sprightly young musicians are under direction of Robert A. Mayer (left). Superintendent of Schools Dr. A. Craig Philips and Principal C. R. Joyner granted permission to participate.

The majorettes of Reynolds High, headed by Meriel Mitchell, who are attractions in themselves with their precision dancing and baton twirling.

Down Memory Lane

1937

Sam Baugh threw more than passes. Here he sets to throw block for Cliff Battles at start of TD run vs Giants in game Redskins won Eastern Championship.

Feb. 13—Boston Redskins franchise moved to Washington.

to their 1-yard line. From kick formation, standing deep in his end zone, Frank Filchok flips pass to Andy Farkas who goes all the way for touch-down. Longest pass play in National League history—99 yds.

Dec. 3—Eastern championship game . . . Giants lead, 9-7, with one minute remaining . . . and the Redskins hammering away on the goal line. Tackle Bo Russell drops back on fourth down to the 15-yard line and kicks placement—but fans' cheers are choked. Referee Bill Halloran rules kick wide.

Ball-Carrier—Andy Farkas, 9th in league: 547 yds, 139 tries, 3.9 avg.

Passer—Frank Filchok, 5th: 89 passes, 55 comp., 1,094 yds, 11 TDs.

Receiver—Wayne Millner, 10th: 19 catches, 294 yds, 4 TDs.

Scorer—Andy Farkas led league: 11 TDs, 2 extra pts, 1 FG, 68 pts.

Aug. 9—Redskins Band founded. First of its kind . . . still the best.

Aug. 17—"Hail to the Redskins!" rings out across the land for the first time. Famed fight song (first also of its kind) introduced over coast-to-coast radio network. Words by Corinne Griffith, music by Barnee Breeskin.

Sept. 18—Eight seconds to go, Brooklyn leads, 16-13. Bob Masterson kicks angled 15-yard field goal to tie.

Sept. 25—Andy Farkas sets all-time Redskins scoring record with three touchdowns and two extra points

Aug. 2—Redskins set forth on first coast-to-coast training trip in football history. U.S. Senator Lewis B. Schwellenbach features train-side ceremonies. Training site: Eastern State Normal School in Cheney, Wash., near Spokane.

Aug. 7—Hal Kemp, favorite dance band leader, records "Hail to the Redskins!" for RCA—first time a pro football team's song has been plattered.

Oct. 1—Only scoreless tie in Redskins history as Giants are battled in rain and mud.

Oct. 15—Redskins are backed up to their 1-yard line. From kick formation, standing deep in his end zone, Frank Filchok flips pass to Andy Farkas who goes all the way for touch-down. Longest pass play in National League history—99 yds.

First (and still tops) pro football song was published in 1938. Movie Star Corinne Griffith wrote words, Band Leader Barnee Breeskin, the music.

Nov. 17—Bears beaten, 7-3, thanks to Dick Todd. The twinkle-toed Texas Aggie scores game's only touch-down on 15-yard pass play, then in final 10 seconds overhauls speedy George McAfee on 2-yd line.

Dec. 1—Miniature-sized Davy O'Brien thrills Griffith Stadium throng with record 33 completions in 60.

Dec. 8—Seventy-three to oh! Bears steam-roller injury riddled Redskins in world championship game. The box score: First Quarter—Osmanski, 68 yds around end; Luckman, 1-yd plunge after 80-yd march; Maniaci, 42 yds around end. Second Quarter—Luckman to Kavanaugh, 30 yds. Third Quarter—Plasman, 15 yds with interception; Nolting, 23 yds up middle; McAfee, 35 yds with interception; Turner, 30 yds with interception. Fourth Quarter—Clark, 44 yds off tackle; Famiglietti, 2-yd plunge after blocked kick; Clark 42 yds off tackle. Oddity: Skins had more first downs than Bears!

Ball-Carrier—Dick Todd, 5th in league: 408 yds, 76 tries, 5.3 avg.

Passer—Sam Baugh, 1st: 177 passes, 111 comp., 1,367 yds, 10 TDs.

Receiver—Jimmy Johnston, 3d: 29 catches, 350 yds, 3 TDs.

Scorer—Dick Todd, 3d: 9 TDs, 54 pts.

HAIL TO THE REDSKINS, Hail Vic-to-ry,
Braves on the war-path, Fight for old Dixie.
Scalp 'em, Swamp 'em

We will take 'em big score.

Read 'em, weep 'em,

Touch-down we want heap more.

Fight on. Fight on till you have won.

Sons of Wash-ing-ton (Rah! Rah! Rah!)

The Million Dollar Games

CHARITIES from coast to coast have netted in the neighborhood of $2,000,000 from games in which the Redskins have participated under sponsorship of newspapers and civic organizations.

- Such games have been played in Baltimore, Birmingham, Buffalo, Chicago, Columbia, Dallas, Denver, Jacksonville, Los Angeles, Memphis, Oklahoma City, San Diego, San Francisco, Winston-Salem and other cities.

- A series sponsored by the Variety Clubs of Baltimore and Washington not only introduced pro football to Baltimore but netted almost $125,000 for boys' club activities in those two cities.

- During World War II, two Redskins games collected almost $125,000 for service relief funds.

- In Winston-Salem, the growing Piedmont Bowl has raised more than $60,000.

- But, by far, the most successful promotion has been The Los Angeles Times' annual Rams-Redskins game in mammoth Memorial Coliseum. In 13 games so far, Times Charities, Inc., has NETTED (after all taxes and expenses) $1,097,307.15.

MISS REDSKIN

"Better than a brochure." So wrote Doc Greene, adroit Detroit News columnist, after he had met Joan Adams, who joined the Redskins publicity staff during the pre-season campaign. Miss Adams was Miss Nevada in the Miss Universe contest of 1958 (and a near Miss for the pole-to-pole title).

Mike Nixon (center) was named head coach after Joe Kuharich (left) was allowed by George P. Marshall (right) to tear up 5-year contract to accept Notre Dame offer.

The Redskins Coaching Staff

Head Coach: Michael Regis (Mike) Nixon 1st Year

21st coaching season. 16th in NFL (2 as player-coach, 14 as assistant coach).

Became Redskin: Aug. 27, 1954.

Residence: Arlington County, Va.

Notable: Known as "Jock's Boy" or "Little Jock" because of strong mutual admiration between him and Dr. John Bain (Jock) Sutherland, for whom he played and coached 12 years. As backfield coach under Dr. Sutherland at Pittsburgh, Nixon fielded one of the greatest offensive units of all time—Goldberg, Cassiano, Stebbins and Chickerneo.

College Playing Record: Halfback, University of Pittsburgh, 1932-33-34. All-America in 1934. Played (1933) and coached (1937) in Rose Bowl.

Born: Nov. 21, 1911, in Masontown, Pa. Has been Southern Association ball player, Pennsylvania State senator, and coal miners' union leader.

Military: Lieutenant, Navy (Armed Guard), 1943-46. Served in Pacific.

Married: Thelma Dellapina of Bulger, Pa. Children: Cheche 19.

Coaching Chronology:

1936-39—Pittsburgh backfield coach.

1940 —West Virginia backfield coach.

1941-42—Player-coach, Brooklyn Dodgers.

1943-45—Lieutenant, U. S. Navy.

1946-51—Steelers assistant coach.

1952 —Cardinals' backfield coach.

1953 —Steelers' assistant coach.

1954-58—Redskins' backfield coach.

Ernest Edward (Ernie) Hefferle Line Coach 1st Year

1st Season in NFL. (Drafted in 1937 by Lions but chose coaching career)

Became Redskin: May 1, 1959. Residence: Arlington, Va. High School Coaching Record: South Huntingdon Township (Pa.) High, 1937-41, won 27, lost 9, tied 4. Tarentum (Pa.) High, 1942-50, won 53, lost 15, tied 2.

College Coaching Record: Assistant Coach at University of Pittsburgh, 1951-59. Line coach under Red Dawson 1951-54 (developed Joe Schmidt of Lions and Lou Palatella of 49ers). End coach under John Michelosen, 1955-59 (developed John Paluck and Joe Walton of Redskins and Fred Glatz of Steelers).

College Playing Record: Played end at Duquesne University, 1933-36. Caught winning TD pass in 1937 Orange Bowl against Mississippi State. Pass covered 72 yds, a record that stood for 22 years. Named All-East, 1936.

Born: Jan. 12, 1915, in Herminie, Pa. Military: Lieutenant, Navy, 1943-46.

Married: Elizabeth Ovsec of Greensburg, Pa. Children: Yvonne 16, Cheryle 14, Jean 7.

William Patrick McPeak Backfield Coach 1st Year

11th season in NFL (9 as player—2 of them as player-coach—and 2 as coach)

Became Redskin: Jan. 19, 1959. Residence: Arlington, Va.

Pro Coaching Record: Player-coach with Steelers in 1956-57, talent scout and coach in 1958.

Pro Playing Record: Signed by Cleveland Browns of old All-America conference in 1949 and released before first league game (Coach Paul Brown says this was one of his greatest mistakes). After release, joined Steelers who had picked him No. 14 for 1949 and became All-Pro defensive end several times.

College Playing Record: University of Pittsburgh, 1945-48. Co-Captain in 1946, captain in 1948. Started every game in four years (37), a Pitt record.

Born: July 24, 1926, in New Castle, Pa.

Military: Seaman Second Class, Navy, 1944.

Married: Virginia Ondrick of Allison Park, Pa. Children: Leslie Ann 1.

Joseph Peter (Joe) Tereshinski End Coach 5th Year

13th Season in NFL (8 as player, 5 as coach, all with Redskins)

Became Redskin: Jan. 27, 1947. Residence: Bethesda, Md. Pro Playing Record: One of most versatile Redskins (1947-54) in history. Played at either right or left end on offense and defense. Finished career as linebacker.

The "Switch play" that scored...

In the past 12 months—more motorists switched to Amoco than to any other premium gasoline!

The reason for this big switch? Only Amoco-Gas is all gas . . . untainted by lead, untinted by color . . . to guarantee you more gas per gallon! More gas . . . for more mileage, more natural power, more economy. Plus, more engine protection! Because only Amoco-Gas is lead-free. No lead deposits to foul vital engine parts. No lead acids to corrode your muffler. You actually save on costly repair bills! Switch to Amoco-Gas.

Amoco's amazing Super Permalube is a specially formulated all-weather motor oil that actually tunes your engine while you drive! The minute your engine's turned on, Super Permalube goes to work with a detergent action that cleans out power-robbing carbon deposits. And while it cleans...it lubricates...lubricates so effectively—engine drag is reduced...with piston rings lasting up to twice as long! The result: more power, more mileage, more engine protection...plus up to two gallons of gas saved per tankful!

"Redskin of the Year"

After each game, sportswriters select "The Redskin of the Week" who receives a special gift from The Hecht Co. of Washington, D. C.

At the end of the season, the writers then vote for the Most Valuable Player over the 12-game span. He is designated "Redskin of the Year" and is honored at a special luncheon at The Touchdown Club where Robert Levi, vice president and general manager of The Hecht Co., presents to him a properly enscribed gold watch. Each winner's name is also engraved upon a handsome trophy which stands on display throughout the year in The Redskins ticket office lobby.

Furious Finishes Featured

NEWEST Redskins' rivalry (began Nov. 19, 1950) but perhaps the most exciting. Browns' edge most mis-leading: Nearly every game has been decided in final minutes—indeed, in 10 of their 13 victories the Browns have been forced to come from behind.

The Browns have been perennial champions or contenders since they were organized. They tied for Eastern Championship last year but lost to Giants in thrilling playoff. In Jim Brown, they have all-time record ball-carrier. Their defensive unit is violent and veteran.

Won-and-Lost Standings

In Washington: Redskins won 1, lost 6, tied 1 (1958: Browns 20-10 Nov. 16)

In Cleveland: Redskins won 2, lost 7, tied 0 (1958: Browns 21-14 Nov. 30)

In Both Cities: Redskins won 3, lost 13, tied 1

Recent Results: Redskins haven't won in series since double victory in 1956. However, Browns have gained three victories and a tie in 1957 and 1958 in final minutes of each game.

Of Note: Only six points separate the two teams over the last eight games.

Cards Most Improved Team

FIRST defeat suffered by Redskins was 21-14 upset triumph by Cardinals Sept. 24, 1937—and both teams have reveled in staging stunning upsets ever since. The Cardinals, charter member of league (Sept. 17, 1920), have been in Eastern Conference only since 1950 when the league was reorganized to admit Browns, 49ers and Colts. Cards appear most improved team in league because of off-season trades. In one of biggest in NFL history, they got four first-string linemen from Rams for Ollie Matson.

WON-AND-LOST STANDINGS

In Washington: Redskins won 10, lost 6, tied 0 (1958: Redskins 45-31 Nov. 9)
In Chicago: Redskins won 6, lost 3, tied 0 (1958: Cards 37-10 Oct. 4)
In Both Cities: Redskins won 16, lost 9, tied 0

Recent Results: Redskins series edge only 10-7 since Cards switched to East. Neither team has been able to win both games since Redskins did it in 1953.

Of Note: An average of 58 points have been scored in the last four games.

World Champions Invade Nov. 8

NOT yet 10 years old (and interrupted once), the Colts series has developed into one of football's finest. It is the only pro series in which the teams battle for a trophy—the Advocate Club Cup. Series began Sept. 17, 1950. Colts were inactive 1951-52 and series was resumed Oct. 25, 1953.

The World Champion Colts, winners of first sudden death playoff, boast the most spectacular and best balanced offense. They led in total offense in 1958—4,539 yds (2,127 rushing, 2,412 passing).

High Scores Dot Eagle Series

WILD, high-scoring series, averaging 43 points per game. Yet, in about half of the games, seven or less points have separated the teams. Series began Oct 10, 1937, here. Interrupted in 1943 when Eagles merged with Steelers. This year's games will be the 43rd and 44th.

Eagles have outstanding aggregation of great offensive backs and one of greatest bomb-throwers in football history—Quarterback Norm Van Brocklin, three-time champion NFL passer.

WON-AND-LOST STANDINGS

In Washington: Redskins won 12, lost 9, tied 0 (1958: Redskins 20-0 Dec. 14)

In Philadelphia: Redskins won 10, lost 9, tied 2 (1958: Redskins 24-14 Sept. 28)

In Both Cities: Redskins won 22, lost 18, tied 2

Recent Results: Redskins have won three games in a row, six of last eight.

Of Note: Winning streaks have featured this series. Redskins once won 11 straight; Eagles, in one stretch, captured eight consecutive. Since 1952, however, neither was able to win three in row until Redskins did it last year with twin triumphs following victory in 1957 finale.

Oldest, Continuous Series

OLDEST, uninterrupted rivalry in Redskins history. Giants provided opposition in first National League game played in Nation's Capital (Sept. 16, 1937). This year's games will be 46th and 47th chapters in thrill-filled series. Twelve times in the past the Eastern Championship has been decided in Giants-Redskins game.

Defending Eastern Champions, Giants have rugged defensive unit built upon best trio of linebackers in league. Gifted Frank Gifford, best all-around back in NFL, leads versatile, veteran offensive team.

WON-AND-LOST STANDINGS

In Washington: Redskins won 8, lost 13, tied 1 (1958: Giants 21-14 Oct. 12)

In New York: Redskins won 8, lost 15, tied 0 (1958: Giants 30-0 Nov. 23)

In Both Cities: Redskins won 16, lost 28, tied 1 (Redskins only scoreless tie)

Recent Results: Giants have won four of last five games, eight of last 10. Most, however, could've gone either way.

Of Note: Redskins will close 1958 season at home vs Giants—first time since 1945. We won Eastern Championship that year.

Packers Eye Past Glory

THIS ancient series always will stir a nostalgic note in the hearts of Redskins' rooters (began Nov. 28, 1937)—see page 9. After 21 embattled seasons, it is all even—14-14 counting league & pre-season games. Their annual Piedmont Bowl series in Winston-Salem has developed into one of football's finest.

Under new Head Coach Vince Lombardi, the Packers (the big team from the little town) are the most improved club in the West. They look to quick return to their past glory (six world championships).

Upsets Stud Pitt Series

MOST unpredictable of all Redskins series, studded with annual upsets. First game played Oct. 17, 1937, here. Series interrupted two years during war when Steelers merged with Eagles (1943) and Cardinals (1944). This year's games will be 41st and 42nd in series.

Steelers closed 1958 as hottest team in league. Won five in a row and six of their last seven games—only semi-blot being 14-14 tie with Redskins.

WON-AND-LOST STANDINGS

In Washington: Redskins won 13, lost 5, tied 2 (1958: 14-14 tie Nov. 2)

In Pittsburgh: Redskins won 12, lost 8, tied 0 (1958: Steelers 24-16 Dec. 7)

In Both Cities: Redskins won 25, lost 13, tied 2

Recent Results: Redskins wide series edge (25 to 13 in victories) is misleading. Redskins won 13 of first 14 games, but since then it's been nip-and-tuck. In the last 26 games, each has won 12 and there have been two ties.

Of Note: After playing one season in University of Pittsburgh Stadium, Steelers have returned to their old home grounds, Forbes Field, this year.

YES! MORE MOTORISTS SWITCHED TO AMOCO-GAS than to any other premium gasoline!

Think of it! Thousands-upon-thousands of motorists changing their usual gasoline buying habits and switching to Amoco-Gas! Why this remarkable switch? Unlike all other premium gasolines in America, only Amoco is all gas—untainted by lead . . . untinted by color. That's why, unlike all other premium gasolines, only Amoco-Gas guarantees motorists more gas per gallon!

Yes, regardless of the make or model car you drive, you get more gas per gallon . . . for more mileage, more natural power, more economy! Plus—more engine protection, because only Amoco-Gas is lead-free! And no lead means . . . no lead deposits to foul vital engine parts! No lead acids to cause muffler corrosion! You actually save on costly repair bills.

Today, tonight, or tomorrow for sure—discover the all-around economy of Amoco-Gas. See for yourself why more motorists have switched to clear, white, unleaded Amoco—than to any other premium gasoline!
