DRAFT DAY 1980

For the first time since 1968, the Redskins had a first round draft choice. And for the first time since 1971, a second round choice. Here, General Manager Bobby Beathard presents first choice, Art Monk, his Redskin jersey (81) and Head Coach Jack Pardee supplies second choice, Mat Mendenhall, with his new jersey (76).

"HAIL TO THE REDSKINS"

Ever since 1937 when the Redskins came to Washington, when Corinne Griffith Marshall and Barnee Breeskin collaborated on the fight song, and when the famed Redskin Marching Band was formed, "Hail to the Redskins" has symbolized the devout unity and loyalty of the Washington Redskins to the Nation's Capital.

When 3,000 people turned out in 1937 just to see Sammy Baugh's first practice, and when 10,000 football-crazed fans traveled to New York and marched down the streets preparing for the division title game vs the Giants, it was obvious that founder George Preston Marshall had found the ultimate perfect home for the Redskins. Nothing has changed in those past 44 years, either All home games are sold out on a season basis, thousands travel to road games, the TV audience is in the millions, and the players are idolized in a city full of "VIP's."

The proud Redskin tradition, in addition to having the League's first marching band and fight song, includes being the first team to have all their games televised, the first team to have a radio network that once covered a whole geographic area of some 10 states, the League's longest string of sell-outs, and the first team to have a complete football facility (Redskin Park) under one roof. Founder George Preston Marshall was also responsible for the two-division system with a championship game, a slimmed down football for more passing, an extra game featuring the League's all stars (Pro Bowl) and elaborate half-time shows.

All over America, the Redskins still attract interest of football fans. Monday night TV's all-time record viewing audience was a Cowboy-Redskin shoot-out at RFK Stadium in 1978. The 1980 season opener will be the national Monday night opener and could set a new rating record again. Washington's 16 appearances in the nine-year ABC Monday history indicates how popular the Redskins are. Also CBS TV's top rated NFC Sunday game of 1979 also featured the Redskins.

Redskin fans have stayed totally behind their team for 43 years, while those who could get tickets have rocked the stadium with thunderous ovations. When the band begins to play, millions of fans, young and old, jump to their feet and proudly proclaim, "Hail to the Redskins, Hail Victory!"

Hail to the Redskins
Hail Victory
Braves on the warpath
Fight for old D. C.

Run or pass and score —
we want a lot more
Beat 'em Swamp 'em Touchdown —
let the points soar
Fight on, Fight on —
Till you have won
Sons of Wash-ing-ton.

HEAD COACH

JACK PARDEE

Some coaches go through an entire career without ever being named the national Coach of the Year, but for Jack Pardee, it's almost becoming a custom. For the second time in just five years as an NFL head coach, Pardee has been honored nationwide as the best at his job.

In the offseason, the Redskins head coach has been honored for the outstanding 1979 10-6 season that saw his underdog team come within seconds of winning the NFC East title, after most had predicted a fourth or fifth place finish for the burgundy and gold of the Nation's Capital.

Honors bestowed on Pardee at the end of the 1979 season include: NFL Coach of the Year by AP; NFC Coach of the Year by UPI; NFL Coach of the Year by Sports Illustrated; NFL Coach of the Year by Washington Touchdown Club; recipient of the Seattle Golden Helmet Award as NFL Coach of the Year; recipient of the 33rd Vincent T. Lombardi Award by the National Football Clinic presented in Atlantic City.

The 44-year old Pardee has guided the Redskins to an 18-14 mark over two seasons that most figured would be rebuilding campaigns. He immediately became the toast of the town in 1978 when he won his first six Redskin games to get the club off to their best start in over 35 years.

In his five NFL years, he has posted a 38-36 record, including 27-19 over the past three seasons, as his recognition is indicating his stature as one of the finest coaches in the NFL.

John Perry "Jack" Pardee was named Washington Redskin head coach by Club President Edward Bennett Williams, January 24, 1978.

Pardee's return to the Redskins came just five years and 10 days after he ended a sparkling 15-year NFL playing career by announcing his retirement following the Redskins' Super Bowl VII loss to the Miami Dolphins.

Pardee starred at left linebacker and defensive signal caller for the Redskins for two of the team's most successful years, 1971 and '72. During this time Washington won 22 games, posted the team's best record since 1945, and were crowned NFC champs.

Following his retirement, his pro coaching career began immediately as he became linebacker coach for the Redskins.

Debuting as a head coach in the World Football League, in 1974, Pardee accepted the assignment with a franchise that was to be located in Washington, later moved to Norfolk, and finally became the Florida (Orlando) Blazers. As coach and general manager, he guided the team through many financial disasters. Going sometimes without paychecks, the team posted a 14-6 record and entered the WFL championship game, bowing to Birmingham by a single point.

Pardee was the youngest head coach in the NFL (age 38) when he was hired by the Chicago Bears, December 31, 1974. In three years, he took the Bears from a lowly 4-10 record to the NFL playoffs. Only the eighth head coach in Bear history, he earned NFC Coach of the Year honors by UPI and Pro Football Writers Association in his second year. In 1977, the Bears closed with a six-game winning streak, their longest in 18 years (1959). The last time the Bears had been in the playoffs was 1963.

A superb student of the sport, Pardee's football career began at Texas A&M where he starred under Paul (Bear) Bryant. He was selected All-Southwest Conference and had outstanding performances in both the Blue-Gray and North-South post season all-star games. Off the field, he earned scholastic All-American honors as a business administration major.

In 1957, the Los Angeles Rams chose Pardee as a second round draft choice and a future all-pro NFL career was underway. After his eighth pro season, an operation to remove cancer in his arm forced him off the field at which time he entered the coaching profession as an assistant at Texas A&M. Never one to quit, Pardee rejoined the Rams in 1966 after the one-year layoff. When the Rams and Redskins transacted a seven-player, eight-draft choice trade in 1971, Pardee came to Washington.

In his NFL years, he played in 196 games. His stats read 22 pass interceptions, 13 fumble recoveries, five touchdowns, and a safety and 1963 and 1971 All-Pro honors. As the defensive signal caller, he was a coach on the field. The 6-2, 225 pounder was voted to the Texas all-time Pro Team in 1975.

Pardee lists his "loves" as church, family and football. He and his wife Phyllis Lane Perryman, were married December 27, 1957, and have five children: Steven, 21, junior in college; Judee, 20, junior, Texas Christian University, Ft. Worth, TX; Anne Marie, 19; Susan, 17; and Ted, 11.

Born April 19, 1936 in Exira, Iowa, Pardee spent most of his youth in Texas, first playing football on a six-man team at Christoval High, where he set national records in the 1950's for scoring.

GENERAL MANAGER

BOBBY BEATHARD

Much of the success for the 1979 Redskins surprising 10-6 season has to go to one of the NFL's most talented general managers, Bobby Beathard. Despite gloomy predictions for the Redskins by football experts, Beathard found new players by trading, signing free agents, and even having a few available draft choices. The players he brought in have continued the winning Redskin tradition.

Since taking over as General Manager on February 24, 1978, the enthusiastic 43-year old has completed transactions with 14 of the NFL's 27 clubs, acquiring 15 players and 10 draft choices, while surrendering six players and 16 draft picks. He has had 15 free agents make the club in his two seasons.

Beathard's task with the Redskins has certainly not been one many people would relish undertaking. Most clubs build through the draft, but in 1978 when Beathard first arrived, Washington had no picks until Round 6 and only five more late round choices. Not discouraged, he selected a future Pro Bowl performer, Tony Green, as his first choice in the sixth round and starting middle linebacker Don Hover in the eighth round. In his second Redskin draft, Beathard had but five choices overall, the lowest total in NFL history. Once again, he found blue-chippers with no high choices. In Round 4 with his first pick, he brought in starting tight end Don Warren. He also selected linebackers Rich Milot and Monte Coleman in Rounds 7 and 11, plus wide receiver Kris Haines, who played one game as a Redskin and is still active in pro ball. This year Beathard had the luxury of a first and second round pick, and hopes to establish a continuing program based on improving via the college draft.

With 17 years of reviewing talent behind him, Beathard's reputation and knowledge of the NFL are impeccable. He began on a part-time basis with Kansas City (1963-66), scouting the western states and then moved on as an aide to Al Davis in the AFL (American Football League) front office. Kansas City made him a permanent scout after three months at the League office, and he stayed until 1968 when he was hired by the Atlanta Falcons. In 1972, Miami named him Director of Player Personnel (as a successor to Joe Thomas).

From 1974-77 in Miami, Beathard drafted 23 players in the first 6 rounds that made the Dolphin roster. In his final year there, 8 of his 11 picks were on the final 43-man roster.

A native of El Segundo, California, he quarterbacked Cal Poly (San Luis Obispo) to consecutive 9-1 records in 1957-58. He signed with the Redskins in 1959, competing for a spot with Eddie LeBaron, Ralph Guglielmi and Eagle Day. He had a brief stay as a defensive back in 1961 with the San Diego Chargers. His younger brother, Pete, starred at Southern Cal and was a first round draft choice by Kansas City in 1964 at quarterback.

Born January 24, 1937, Beathard is an avid runner. He has run the last two Boston Marathons. His best time was 2 hours and forty-six minutes this spring. He has competed in numerous other races around the country, while trying to run 10-15 miles daily for pleasure and training.

When Beathard isn't traveling the country looking for talent, he and his wife Christine reside in Oakton, Va. He has three sons and a daughter.

4th Year

Born: November 30, 1955, Kosciusko, Mississippi

Became Redskin: May 15, 1978. Signed as a free agent.

NFL Games Played In: 44

Pro Career: His big-play reputation last year earned him the team label: "Mr. Clutch." In addition to his countless third-down runs and pass receptions, Clarence caught the game-winning pass at Cleveland and broke a short pass into a 35-yard gain against St. Louis to set up a game-winning field goal. His 32 pass receptions last year ranked second on the club and his 267 yards rushing was third best, while his five touchdowns led all receivers.

As a rookie in 1977, Clarence was actually a surprise just to make the roster. He was one of the last free agents signed and earned a spot as one of only two rookies to make the team that year. Clarence was the first rookie since Mike Thomas in 1975 to start a game, when injuries gave him the opportunity to be a starter for nine games. His first pro touchdown was against Dallas as a rookie.

SEASON SELL-OUTS . . . Home games at RFK Stadium have been sold out in advance since 1966, a string of some 99 consecutive games. KEN HOUSTON

Safety

Height: 6-3

Weight: 198

Prairie View

14th Year

Born: November 12, 1944, Lufkin, Texas

Became Redskin: May 15, 1973. Redskins gave five players to the Houston Oilers to get the all-pro safety. Players involved were Snowden, Alston, Severson, McNeil, and Fanucci.

NFL Games Played In: 183 (146 plus 37 AFL)

Pro Career: It would be hard to imagine any strong safety in the history of the NFL being any better than Ken Houston. In 1979, Ken, football's most unsung "superstar," earned a 12th straight selection to the Pro Bowl, tops among all active players and second only to Merlin Olsen.

Houston intercepted the 49th pass of his career in 1979 and still holds the following NFL records: most touchdowns on interceptions, lifetime, 9; most touchdowns on interceptions, game, 2 vs. San Diego, 1971 (ties record); and most touchdowns on interceptions, season, 4 (1971).

Over his 13 years in professional football, the aggressive hard-hitting Houston had played in 183 consecutive games before suffering a broken arm in the 13th week of last season at New York and missing the final three games. He has recovered 18 fumbles, scored 72 points (12 touchdowns), and returned a blocked field goal 71 yards for a touchdown.

A devoted Christian, humble Ken has earned recognition for all his off-field activities and community involvement.

Originally, Ken was a 9th round draft pick by the Oilers, and also returned 51 punts for 333 yards and a touchdown, as well as three kickoffs for 53 yards.

Born: May 28, 1957, Coaldale, PA

Became Redskin: May 4, 1979. Selected in seventh round of draft (Redskins' second choice overall).

NFL Games Played In: 14

Pro Career: Talented Rich earned the starting right linebacker spot in training camp, becoming the first Redskin rookie to start a season opener since DT Bill Brundige did so back in 1970. He was replacing 14-year veteran Chris Hanburger. After starting six weeks, misfortune struck Rich as he fractured his wrist in the opening minutes of game seven vs. Cleveland. To that point, Rich had 19 tackles, 1 quarterback sack, and forced a fumble vs. St. Louis that resulted in the Redskins recovering the ball in the end zone for a touchdown. He remained on the roster, missing two games, and playing the remainder on special teams with his arm in a cast.

College Career: Rich played numerous positions at Penn State (linebacker, strong safety, tailback, fullback, defensive end, and defensive halfback) as Coach Paterno utilized his many talents. As a senior he had 30 tackles and three interceptions, after rushing for 191 yards and catching seven passes for 54 yards earlier in his career.

of Latter-Day Saints from 1973-75 in Taiwan. He returned to school and alternated with Dennis Sproul in a 12-0 1976 season. An injury slowed him down in 1977 and he played back-up his final two seasons. All-academic in college, also.

Stephen F. Austin

9th Year

Born: March 12, 1948, Laneville, Texas

Became Redskin: February 1, 1974 as a free agent

NFL Games Played In: 114

Pro Career: Consistency is what makes the best players noticed and Mark Moseley again demonstrated his consistency in 1979. For the third time in the last four years, Moseley led the entire NFL in field goals made and was the only kicker to make all his extra points (39-39). He topped the NFC in scoring for the second time and led the Redskins for a sixth consecutive year.

Dependable Mark has made 69 consecutive extra points over two seasons, 88-89 over three years, and 119-121 over four years. In 1979, he hit 15-16 field goals inside 40 yards, missing only on a blocked attempt, and his high kickoffs helped the special teams lead the NFL in kickoff coverage return yardage.

Mark established new Redskin club records for career points (546), career field goals (121), career extra points (183), while tying the club record for points in a season (114). He has 691 career points, needing just 47 points to move into the top 20 all-time NFL scorers. He holds the Redskin record for longest field goal made (54 yards).

Moseley's strong leg (he leg squats over 500 pounds) has enabled him to make 58 career field goals over 40 yards, including seven over 50 yards. His "average" miss in 1979 was 49.9 yards, the highest in the NFL.

In 1979, Mark earned Pro Bowl honors, UPI first team honors (leading offensive vote getter), Pro Football Weekly and Sporting News first team NFC honors, and second team mention by AP and NEA.

Mark came to the Redskins as a free agent, having been waived by the Houston Oilers (1973) and Philadelphia Eagles (1971). He was originally a 14th round draft selection by the Eagles in 1970, scoring 67 points his rookie season.

Became Redskin: March 1, 1974. Redskins traded draft choice to Miami for rights to Theismann on January 25, 1974.

NFL Games Played In: 83

Pro Career: Given the opportunity to start every game for the first time in his NFL career, Joe responded by being the second highest rated quarterback among all the NFL's signal-callers with an 84.0 rating.

His 1979 performance was the best by any Redskin quarterback of the decade of the '70's and enabled him to set many personal bests. He helped guide the squad to 10 wins and 348 points, second highest in club history.

Joe played steadily all season en route to a 59 per cent completion rate with 20 touchdowns and only 13 interceptions as he received second team UPI All-NFC honors, while his teammates cited him as the most valuable player on the squad.

After joining the club in 1974, Joe did not get his first start until 1976 (vs. Kansas City). He started six games that season, six in 1977, and 14 of the 16 in 1978. Joe has been holder for field goals and extra points, making several big plays on fake holds. He also has returned 17 punts in his NFL career.

Originally a fourth round 1971 Miami draft choice, Joe elected to go to Toronto of the Canadian League. He played three seasons with the Argonauts, passing for over 5,000 yards and rushing for over 1,000 more.

SAN FRANCISCO 24, REDSKINS 20 — Using a blocked punt by Jon Jaqua, Washington scored first on a Jerry Smith reception from Billy Kilmer to take a 10-3 halftime lead. Speedy Duncan returned the second half kickoff 66 yards and the Redskins drove to the 11 yard line, where they were stopped on fourth down with inches to go. San Francisco took over on downs and on the third-down play, John Brodie passed 78 yards to Gene Washington for the tying touchdown. The 49ers scored on their next possession after an interception and went ahead to stay, 17-10. A Curt Knight field goal narrowed the score to 17-13, but in the fourth quarter a bad center snap on a punt was recovered in the end zone by the 49ers for the final touchdown and a margin the Redskins could not overcome.

The Super Bowl

In 1970, the NFL was divided into two 13-team conferences, comprised of the 26 teams formerly competing in the National Football League and the American Football League. Each conference was further divided into three divisions, the winner of each conference to be determined by a playoff of the three division winners plus the second place team within the conference with the best record. The winner of the two conferences meet in the NFL title game—The Super Bowl. An additional wild card team from each conference was added in 1978.

- Only scoreless tie in Redskin history as Giants are battled in mud and rain.
- From kick formation, standing deep in end zone, Frank Filchock flips pass to Andy Farkas who goes all the way for touchdown. Longest pass play in National League history . . . 99 yards.

Second straight shutout (Steelers 0 - 24 Dec 2) vs Giants, 17 - 0, wins Eastern title.

In subzero weather, Redskins lose world title to Rams, 15 - 14, on incredibly freakish plays. Baugh's pass from end zone hits goal-post for safety (no longer allowed); and Waterfield's try-for-point hits crossbar and bounces over.

Fans give auto to Sam Baugh who thanks them with 6 TD tosses, routing champion Cards, 45 - 21.

Twenty-one points in 137 seconds! Eagles lead 16 - 0 in 3rd quarter. Brito recovers fumble on their 32 and LeBaron passes to Janowicz for TD. Thomas recovers kick-off in end zone for TD. Torgeson recovers fumble on Eagles 13. Janowicz goes over. Redskins win, 31 - 30.

World Champion Colts nipped in final 11 seconds by Sam Baker's 46-yd field goal.

Dick James scores 4 TDs to set Redskins single game scoring record in 34 - 24 win over Dallas.

Redskins stun public by trading QB Norman Snead to Eagles for veteran QB Sonny Jurgensen. Then repeat the performance, shipping favorite Dick James to N.Y. for Sam Huff.

Sonny Jurgensen out-duels Norm Snead by pitching four TD's against the Eagles in the first meeting of the TRADED quarterbacks.

Sonny Jurgensen sparks greatest comeback win in Redskin history. Down 21-0, Redskins record 34-31 victory over the Cowboys as Sonny passes for over 400 yds and 3 TDs.

The Redskins score the most points in NFL history as they tie or set many team and league records in routing New York, 72-41.

Sonny Jurgensen sets new Redskin and NFL passing records for most attempts, completions, and yards. Receivers Charley Taylor, Jerry Smith and Bobby Mitchell finish 1, 2, and 4 in the league; highest ever by receivers on same team.

Redskins defeat New Orleans by score of 17-14 to insure their first winning season since 1955. Victory also kept Coach Lombardi's record of never having coached a losing NFL team intact.

Larry Brown, on second offensive play of game with Eagles and needing 4 yards to break the 1000 yard barrier, takes handoff from Sonny Jurgensen and gains 12 yards to become the first Redskin in history to become a member of the 1000 yard club.

Larry Brown, gaining 44 yards against the Cardinals, ends the season as the top rusher in the NFL with a total of 1125 yards in 237 attempts for a 4.7 avg. He is the first Redskin to win an NFL rushing title.

Allen guided Redskins to most wins, 9, in 29 years with 9-4-1 record. First time in 26 years Redskins gained championship playoff game.

George Allen voted NFL and NFC "Coach of Year."

Redskins won first title in 30 years with a convincing 26-3 NFC championship win over defending world champion Dallas Cowboys in RFK Stadium following big 16-3 NFC playoff victory over Green Bay, also in RFK Stadium. Met Miami Dolphins in Super Bowl VII in Los Angeles Coliseum and lost, 14-7.

Larry Brown honored by all selections as "NFL Player of Year." Won NFC rushing title as he set new Redskin rushing record with his 1,216 yards, his second over 1,000 yard year.

For second year in row, George Allen accorded "Coach of Year" honors.

Redskins had the best record (10-4) in the NFC East. Second best in NFL.

For the fourth consecutive year, all under Allen, the Redskins made the NFL playoffs.

Redskins wide receiver Charley Taylor became all-time reception leader in NFL history with 634th career catch against the Eagles in season's finale.

By winning final four games, including wins at Dallas and at St. Louis, Redskins made playoffs for fifth time in six years under Allen.

Redskins finished 9-5 for 7th consecutive winning season, but missed playoffs even though they tied with Minnesota and Chicago.

By winning the first six games, including wins over rivals Dallas and St. Louis and playoff bound New England, the Redskins enjoyed their best start in over 35 years. New Coach Jack Pardee was 12-0, with wins in his final 6 Bears games to go with these 6.

Coach Pardee selected NFL Coach of the Year by Associated Press, Sports Illustrated, Washington and Seattle Touchdown Clubs; NFC Coach of the Year by United Press International. The 10-6 record marked the ninth consecutive year Redskins finished .500 or better. Both the division title and wild card playoff game lost in final seconds of final game in Dallas, 35-34.

THE

HOTEL

1200 Sixteenth Street, N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20036

“I hate to rave about this place—because it may get crowded. I'd just as soon keep it to recommend to my special friends. It might be a cliché, but there's no better way to describe The Jefferson than to say it's like a home away from home, and if you do a lot of traveling, or just like that kind of feeling when you do venture out into the world, you'll understand.”—Nancy Love, The Washingtonian Magazine

The Jefferson is considered one of Washington, D.C.'s dowager hotels, an elegant, yet intimate “home away from home” which has, over the past half-century, been lovingly appraised by its many devoted guests. Once described as Washington's equivalent to New York's Algonquin because of its popularity among entertainers and journalists, today's Jefferson still welcomes its share of notables while catering primarily to a business-oriented clientele.”—Signature

“As an old hotel lover, I am thrilled to at last have found one so pleasant and homey and convenient in Washington that I hardly mind being away from home anymore. The Jefferson, three or four blocks from the White House, is a small, personal type hotel, where the help learns your name and calls you by it, where the rooms are as individual as the people who occupy them and where the rates appear to be comparable with those of the most mundane, stereotyped chain hostelry.”—Celestine Sibley, Atlanta Constitution”
