The Million Dollar Games

It was the Redskins who started it—the Good Samaritan Schedule—those pre-season charity football games played annually by the National Football League from Coast-to-Coast.

And the Redskins are still in the forefront of the Charity League today.

Over the years the Redskins have played pre-season charity games in more than three dozen cities across the land and have helped raise nearly $3,000,000 for charity.

A pre-season series sponsored by the Variety Clubs of Washington and Baltimore not only introduced pro football to Baltimore but raised over $125,000 for boys' club activities.

In 1946 the Redskins launched the famous Times Charity Game against the Rams in Los Angeles. The biggest and greatest of all pre-season games, the Redskins performed in the Times game from 1946 through 1962. During this period, the Times Charities netted over $1,600,000—money which built and staffed three boys' clubs.

The Redskins ended this famous series in order to bring Charity back home. For with the advent of D. C. Stadium, the time had come for Washington to take its place on the Good Samaritan Schedule.

A five-year contract was signed with Almas Temple of the Shrine in Washington in 1961 and renewed this year. Under this contract the Redskins are to alternate playing the Baltimore Colts and Chicago Bears in a late August game in D. C. Stadium. The first three games netted Almas Temple $219,000 for its various charities.

PAST PERFORMANCES

This will be the first game between the Redskins and Lions in 10 seasons. The last game in 1956 saw an underdog Redskins team shatter the Lions pennant parade. Detroit was leading the Western Division with a 6-0 mark going into the game but never recovered from its defeat in Washington. Rookie halfback Dick James paced the Redskins first half assault on the Lions with one of the most thrilling TD runs in modern Redskins history as over six Lion players had Dick in their grasp but couldn't stop him during his 47-yd. romp. Lions take deliberate safety in second half and it gives Redskins their victory points. The Redskins who never have lost a game to the Lions at home, haven't beaten them in Detroit since 1943.

QUALITY FORD CARS give you an uncannily quiet ride, as tests comparing a Galaxie and a Rolls-Royce (above) proved.* And a hushed ride is the sign of a beautifully engineered car!

QUALITY FORD DEALERS offer you a test drive in a new Ford—no catches, no obligations. A new car is probably your second biggest investment (after a home). Be wise, and test-drive!

QUALITY FORD SERVICE keeps your new Ford in top shape. The mechanics are factory-trained Ford specialists. They use only Ford parts. Ford cars deserve Ford service!

*Leading acoustical consultants conducted tests in which 1965 Fords (Galaxie 500 Sedan, XL and LTD Hardtops) with 289-cu. in. V-8 engines and automatic transmissions rode quieter than a new Rolls-Royce. Tests were certified by the U. S. Auto Club.
